

meet Brit's healthcare team

Brit has over 25 years' heritage in writing professional liability risks; our comprehensive healthcare liability offering is a core part of that heritage. The global healthcare industry is a rapidly growing and evolving sector, the complex risk attributes of which require industry expertise across the underwriting, claims and actuarial functions.

Brit's experienced healthcare team is committed to providing tailored insurance solutions, innovative products and related healthcare risk services to our clients and brokers. We pride ourselves on delivering disciplined, consistent underwriting and exceptional service. Please get in touch if you would like to find out more.

Tom Kennedy
Class Underwriter
Healthcare Liability

Tom has led the Healthcare Liability portfolio at Brit Global Specialty in London since early 2019, having joined the firm as an underwriter in 2015. He is responsible for the underwriting management of Brit's healthcare account in both the US and Internationally.

Tom began his insurance career at CNA Europe in the HealthPro division, where he primarily focused on underwriting medical liability in the UK and France on a primary basis. More recently he has worked at Barbican Insurance Group underwriting on behalf of syndicate 1955 at Lloyd's, where he was primarily responsible for US and UK medical liability on both a primary and excess basis. Prior to this he served in the British Army for four years as an infantry officer in the Royal Regiment of Scotland.

Tom is ACII qualified and holds a BA (Hons) in Politics, Philosophy and Economics from Durham University. He is deputy chair of the LMA Medical Malpractice & Healthcare Committee.

Marc Tyler
Senior Underwriter
Healthcare Liability

Marc started his underwriting career in 2010, spending his first four years within Catlin's US Casualty Reinsurance division underwriting a lead portfolio of Medical Malpractice, General Liability, Workers Compensation, Professional Lines and Systemic protections.

In 2014, Marc moved to Dale Underwriting Partners within its first year to support a new owner-managed Lloyd's syndicate with a majority focus on casualty business. Healthcare Professional Liability, Miscellaneous Medical Malpractice and Long Term Care were key areas of this broad insurance/reinsurance portfolio, and Marc's role was focused on underwriting US-based risks and developing a variety of new products. He joined the Brit healthcare team in mid-2019. He was promoted to the position of senior underwriter in February 2022.

Marc is ACII qualified and holds a BSc (Econ) in Economics from Cardiff University.
